

Things to KNOW before you order stalls for WEC Ocala Shows

FIRST AND FOREMOST-BE SURE YOU ARE ORDERING FOR THE RIGHT SHOW!

Double check you are ordering for the correct show week as well as location (Ocala vs. Ohio)

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL STALLS ORDERED.

1. Be sure that you reserve the correct amount of horse/tack stalls, you will be responsible for what you order. You can always look back and see what you have ordered by going into your horseshowing.com account then the STATUS menu item or by calling/emailing the stabling office.
2. Horses scratched for any reason within the 3-week cancellation period will still be responsible for their stall unless an approved vet's note is supplied to both the horse show office and the stabling office.
3. Be sure to submit and pay the $50.00 deposit on all stalls/tack stalls and LTR's online when ordering. Tack stalls and LTR's remaining balance can be split at the show before Friday at 4:00pm.
4. MAKE SURE you choose correctly between horse stalls, groom stalls and locking tack rooms (LTR) - if a locking tack room is not available an additional stall will be supplied.
5. Stalls can ONLY be reserved through Horseshowing.com, not over the phone, through text or by email. No stalls will be assigned until ordered and paid for through Horseshowing.com.
6. The ONLY way to cancel stalls is by emailing OcalaStalls@wec.net. You cannot do it any other way. Stalls must be cancelled in writing to ocalastalls@wec.net by midnight, Tuesday, 21 days before the show week begins to be considered an on-time cancel.
7. The trainer is responsible for making sure all stalls are paid for at the end of the show week!
8. Be sure you communicate with everyone coming in your group. If the stalls are ordered by both the trainer and the client, they will still all need to be paid, even if unused.
9. We do not make exceptions for any reason regarding our 21-day cancellation policy.

Stalls cancelled within 21 days of the horseshow week the stalls are reserved for will be billed at $300 each.

FEI horses DO NOT need to reserve a stall UNLESS a national horse is attending. To add a FEI tack/groom stall you must call or email the stabling office. All stalls ordered through Horseshowing.com are considered national horse stalls and will be assigned as so.

To Order Stalls go to:

<https://www.horseshowing.com/mobile/index.html>

Log into your FREE Horseshowing.com account (or create one if you don't have one), then go to the Stalls/Feed/Bedding menu item and select the show for which you wish to reserve stalls. Stalls must all be ordered using the SAME trainers last name to guarantee stabling together. Stalls reserved under a different trainer name with a "stabling note" to be stabled with someone else cannot be guaranteed!

Stalls can be "reserved" in bulk OR added to each horse's entry using the option in the FEES drop down box.

You will be required to pay for all horse stalls ordered, if you wish to mail a check then select check as your payment option as it does default to credit card. You will be emailed an invoice right away with instructions for mailing.

Stalls must be cancelled in writing to ocalastalls@wec.net by midnight, Tuesday, 21 days before the show to be considered an on-time cancel.

Stalls cancelled within 21 days of the horseshow week the stalls are reserved for will be billed at $300 each.

APPROVED EARLY ARRIVALS (before 3pm Monday) are billed at $50 per stall/per day.

The only way to be approved for an early arrival is by emailing Ocalastalls@wec.net and having written approval from the stabling manager.

Stalls must be vacated by 7:00am on Monday after the show ends.

Late departures are billed at $50 per hour/per stall unless arrangements have been made for a late departure.

Late departures may be required to move to a different area.
